

Biographical Information on 2010 PWR Moderator – Don Sinko

Don Sinko is an Elder at Parma-South Presbyterian Church, where he serves as Chair of the Endowment Committee and Co-Chair of the Finance Committee. Over the years he has been active in the Presbytery, serving six years as Presbytery Treasurer, as a member of the Administration Council for nine years, and currently as a member of Mission Council.

Don is the Chief Integrity Officer for the Cleveland Clinic, and is responsible for the health system's internal audit and compliance programs. Prior to Cleveland Clinic, he was the Director of Internal Audit at Eaton Corporation, responsible for an international audit staff serving operations on five continents, and was an audit executive at Ernst & Young, primarily serving healthcare and manufacturing clients.

Don is a CPA and a graduate of Miami University, where he met his wife Cathy. Cathy is active at Parma-South and is a member of its Communications Committee. Cathy grew up in Bexley Ohio, where she was a member of Broad Street Presbyterian Church. They were married 29 years ago at Parma-South and have three children, Greg, 25, a CPA at Ernst & Young; Stephanie, 23, a human resources major in graduate school at Baldwin-Wallace; and Brad, 21, a junior accounting major at Miami. Don is also actively serving on the Boards of Trustees of The Arthritis Foundation, Great Lakes Theater Festival, and the Miami University Center for Business Excellence.